Ref: BT4B

Budget Birdwatching, Taj Mahal & Tiger Tour

(includes Kanha National Park)

Best time to visit: November - March

13 days Delhi – Bharatpur – Chambal (day trip) – Agra – Kanha – Delhi
Refer to BT4 for standard and deluxe version

See spectacular birdlife in Bharatpur Bird Sanctuary, take a boat safari along the Chambal river for Indian Skimmers, Gharials and maybe River Dolphins. Marvel at the Taj Mahal then explore Kipling-country at Kanha in search of Tiger and a wealth of other wildlife.

Bird species likely to be seen: Painted, Black-necked, Woolly-necked, Lesser Adjutant and Open-billed Storks; Dusky Eagle-owl, Collared Scops Owl, Coppersmith Barbet, Indian Courser, Greater Painted-snipe, Crested Serpent-eagle, Greater Spotted Eagle, Indian Grey Hornbill, Sarus Crane, Bar-headed Goose, Yellow and Red-wattled Lapwings, Indian Skimmer, Small Pratincole, Green Bee-eater, Red Junglefowl, Plum-headed Parakeet, Orange-headed Thrush, Purple Sunbird, Grey and Large-tailed Nightjars, Bronze-winged Jacana and Golden-fronted Leafbird

Mammals likely to be seen: Bengal Tiger, Indian Bison (Gaur), Swamp Deer, Nilgai, Sambar Deer, Spotted Deer, Barking Deer, Fruitbats, Wild Boar, Jungle Cat, Hanuman (Common) Langur, Rhesus Macaque, Five-striped Palm Squirrel, Grey and Small Indian Mongoose. Leopard, Sloth Bear and Wild Dog are present at Kanha but more difficult to see.

Itinerary

Day 1: Flight (excluded, but easily booked via the internet)

Day 2: Delhi

Meals: Payable directly.

You will be welcomed at Delhi airport and taken to check in at a local hotel (check in is from 12 noon). Spend the remainder of the day exploring Delhi sites with your driver.

Day 3: Delhi – Bharatpur

Meals: Breakfast in Delhi, lunch and dinner at Bharatpur

After breakfast your driver will take you to Bharatpur. The journey can take anywhere between 5 and 7 hours, depending on traffic. We recommend leaving no later than 7am, earlier if you can, to avoid the worst of the rush hour. Check in to your hotel, just a few hundred meters from the entrance to Bharatpur Bird Sanctuary. Spend the remainder of the day exploring the sanctuary with an experienced guide. Bharatpur is an incredible place for wetland birds when water is plentiful. Even in drought years (there have been several recently) you can see a large number of species in a day in grassland, dry thorn, forest and remaining wet areas. Expect wonderful views of several species of stork, Eurasian Spoonbill, Glossy and Black-headed Ibises as well as Sarus Crane and often Black Bittern. It's worth checking adjacent fields for Indian Courser and Yellow-wattled Lapwing. Relax for the evening at your hotel.

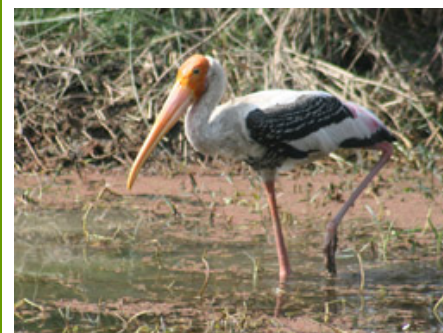

Day 4: Bharatpur

Meals: Breakfast, packed lunch (served inside the park) and dinner

Explore Bharatpur Bird Sanctuary for the whole day with an experienced guide. The wet woodland, dry acacia scrub and extensive grasslands attract many brightly-coloured birds. Bluethroat, Oriental Magpie Robin and Pied Bushchat hop around the track-side, the skulking Siberian Rubythroat is seen each year and can often be found with a bit of time and effort. Spotted Owlet, Collared Scops Owl, Coppersmith and Brown-headed Barbets, Red-vented Bulbul, Small Minivet and Golden Oriole are all regularly seen and much more. Look out for mammals too: Golden Jackal, Nilgai and Sambar Deer are just a few of the common species you can see with the help of your guide. Pack your bags tonight, as you'll be leaving early next morning. Relax for the evening at your hotel.

Day 5: Bharatpur – Chambal – Agra

Meals: Breakfast and packed lunch from Bharatpur, dinner payable directly in Agra. After an early breakfast you will leave for the Chambal River at Dholpur with your bird guide accompanying for the day. The journey, in part through typical Uttar Pradesh countryside will take approximately 1¾ hours. You will observe people at work in the fields and rural businesses including brick furnaces. Enjoy a three-hour boat safari on the Chambal River. Species here might include Indian Skimmer, Gharial (an uncommon fish-eating crocodile), Marsh Crocodile, many species of bird and, if you are lucky, you might glimpse the rare Ganges Fresh Water River Dolphin. Have your packed lunch and then return to Agra where you will say goodbye to your bird guide. Check in at your hotel and relax for the remainder of the day. Night in Agra.

Day 6: Agra – overnight train to Jabalpur (near Kanha)

Meals: Breakfast at hotel, lunch and dinner payable directly. After breakfast spend several hours exploring Agra. First of all we would recommend you visit Agra Fort, a World Heritage Site (WHS) worthy of a few hours of anyone's time. Then have lunch and consider ordering a packed dinner for the train journey later; we can recommend a restaurant or two if you wish. A stay in this bustling city is not complete without a visit to the Taj Mahal. A mid-afternoon viewing is recommended when the marble often turns from brilliant white to peach-tinted. We are sure you'll find this a most memorable day and you can look for birds here too: Black Kites soar overhead and Ruddy Shelduck and River Lapwing could be on the banks of the Yamuna river. The Taj Mahal is closed on Fridays. Pick up lunch and dinner in Agra before being transferred to the railway station to catch the Gondwana Express to Jabalpur departing Agra at 18.50 hours. Night on the train in second class air-conditioned sleeper (pillow, sheet and blanket provided).

Day 7: Jabalpur – Kanha

Meals: Breakfast payable directly on journey, lunch and dinner at your lodge. Your train is expected to arrive early in Jabalpur at 0715 hours, though sometimes it can run late, so you should ask other passengers or the ticket checker and they will advise accordingly. This is the end of the line for this train, so you will have plenty of time to disembark. Your driver will be waiting for you on the station platform, so look for your name on a placard. From here Kanha is a 3½ to 4 hour drive. You can ask your driver to stop en-route so you can take breakfast. Check in at your safari lodge is usually from 12 noon, earlier if rooms are available but if not, you can relax in the communal areas of the lodge. Rest of day at leisure for birdwatching in and around the lodge environs (on your own or with lodge guide if available – please enquire on arrival). See supplement if you'd like to include an extra safari this afternoon.

Days 8, 9 and 10: Kanha

Meals: Breakfast, lunch and dinner at your lodge. Enjoy morning and afternoon jeep safaris inside Kanha National Park, home to the ultimate of predators, the Bengal Tiger. Kanha is also an excellent place for Gaur, Swamp Deer, Wild Dog and Jungle Cat. Sloth Bear and Leopard are occasionally seen, but require more luck. Kanha boasts an impressive bird list and species might include Scarlet Minivet, Orange-headed Thrush, Black-hooded Oriole, Tickell's Blue Flycatcher and Plum-headed Parakeet. You might also see the ugly yet characterful Lesser Adjutant Stork and the impressive Changeable Hawk-eagle, while Red Spurfowl or Red Junglefowl might race across the jeep track. Note: If a Tiger is found away from the jeep track, but accessible by elephant, you may be offered the opportunity to transfer onto an elephant to increase your chance of a good view. This is dependent on successful tiger tracking and it cannot be guaranteed so the cost is payable directly (approx. £10 per person per short ride) should you choose to take this option.

Day 11: Kanha – Jabalpur – overnight train to Delhi

Meals: Breakfast, early lunch or packed lunch and packed dinner from your lodge. Have a leisurely few hours at your lodge or explore locally around the lodge environs (on your own or with lodge guide if available). Or you could add in an extra safari drive if you wish - see supplement for this. Later in the morning you will be transferred to Jabalpur station to connect with the Gondwana Express, departing at 1555 hours to Delhi. Night on the train in second class air-conditioned sleeper carriage (pillow, sheet and blanket provided).

Day 12: Delhi

Meals: Payable directly

Your train will arrive in Delhi at 0725 hours. Your driver will meet you at the station platform (scan the placards for your name). You will have the car and driver at your disposal for the remainder of the day for local sightseeing in Delhi (monument fees and any guide fees to be paid directly). Check in at your hotel will be after 12 noon. Night at your hotel.

Day 13: Delhi

Meals: Breakfast

On this day we have included a departure transfer to the airport to connect with your international flight home (to be booked by you directly).

Tour ends.
